Meet Jun Hua, Ara, Gina, Eric, Ketaki, and Nora (pictured left to right) International Peer Mentors who make up this year's OIA Welcome Team.

We are so excited to welcome you to IUPUI!

This August, we will be meeting students at the Indianapolis International Airport and hosting Grocery Store Shuttles for newly arrived international students.

Say hello if you see us!!

Details will be updated as dates and times are confirmed - click the buttons above for details.

Wherever you are from, you can explore the world's cultures at IUPUI.

Whether you want to get a student mentor (undergraduates) or a graduate welcome volunteer, join an international student organization, have Thanksgiving with an American host, volunteer while learning about the world, or taste cuisines from around the world at our International Festival, you can do it here-and make friends along the way.

Find International Events
Getting involved is about more than fun and games. It’s about preparing for life.

There are so many ways to get involved at IUPUI. Click any of the boxes above for more details about some of the opportunities offered by the division of Student Affairs.

WEEKS OF WELCOME

For two weeks at the beginning of every school year, we bring you Weeks of Welcome (WOW).

The weeks’ events not give you countless opportunities to meet new friends! They will also help you get more familiar with the city of Indianapolis, our campus, and all of the resources available to set you up for success in the coming terms.
