2018-2019 Local, National, and International Opportunities

Fulbright Scholar Program
Dates: See Fulbright Scholar Program website for specific program dates.
Location: Global
Two opportunities relevant to IUPUI are the Core Fulbright Scholar Program, which offers over 500 teaching, research, or combination teaching/research awards in over 125 countries, and the International Education Administrators seminars, which help U.S. international education professionals and senior higher education officials create empowering connections with the societal, cultural and higher education systems of other countries. There are SEVERAL other opportunities available.

For more information: Fulbright Scholar Program
IEA Seminars

Assessment Institute in Indianapolis-Global Learning Track
Dates: October 21-23, 2018
Location: Indianapolis Marriott Downtown
The Assessment Institute in Indianapolis is the nation’s oldest and largest event focused exclusively on outcomes assessment in higher education. The focus of the Global Learning Track is to share expertise and extend knowledge related to measuring, assessing, and improving strategies to facilitate global and intercultural learning and curriculum internationalization in the context of higher education.

For more information: Assessment Institute

NAFSA Region 6 Annual Conference- Teaching, Learning, and Scholarship Knowledge Community Sessions
Dates: November 4-6, 2018
Location: Hyatt Regency, Columbus, OH.
The TLS KC focuses on curriculum internationalization, research that informs practice, and intercultural communication and serves faculty, administrators, graduate students/post-docs, researchers, intercultural trainers, cross-cultural counselors, and other professionals in international education.

For more information: NAFSA Region 6

Council on International Exchange (CIEE)
Dates: November 7-10, 2018
Location: Barcelona, Spain
The conference theme is “Leading innovation: Educating global citizens in the digital age”. It will address new educational models that are emerging in an effort to prepare students for learning and working in the digital age. Models such as flipped classrooms, artificial intelligence, online learning, competency-based education, adaptive learning, collaborative education, phenomenon-based learning, and design thinking are a few of the innovative approaches being used in higher education.

For more information: CIEE

Association of International Education Administrators (AIEA) Annual Conference
Dates: January 20 -30, 2019
Location: San Francisco, CA
The 2019 AIEA conference aims to bring together senior international education leaders from around the world to focus on the possibilities and probabilities in the international higher education. AIEA invites submissions for sessions that consider international higher education leaders as both futurists and strategists. Faculty, staff, and administrators with relevant areas of focus can propose a session with a senior international officer.

For more information: AIEA
Diversity Abroad Conference

Dates: March 2-5, 2019
Location: Boston, MA
Since 2013 the annual Diversity Abroad Conference — along with the Global Student Leadership Summit & the MSI Global Education Summit — has constituted the most comprehensive national forum on issues of access, diversity, equity, and inclusion in global education. The 2019 Diversity Abroad conference in Boston will bring together more than 600 education professionals, student leaders, employers, and leading graduate programs to plan a path forward to reach a shared vision — to ensure equitable access to global educational opportunities. Its goal is that the next generation of young people from diverse and underrepresented backgrounds are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and experience to be academically, personally, and professionally successful in the 21st century interconnected world.

For more information: Diversity Abroad Conference

Institute for Curriculum & Campus Internationalization (ICCI)

Dates: May 2019 – exact dates not yet announced
Location: Indiana University Bloomington
This institute is for faculty, staff, and administrators who are in higher education and are seeking new ways to internationalize the campus, a course, and/or the curriculum. ICCI provides the highest quality learning environment for you to think more deeply and productively about internationalization. ICCI includes two distinctive tracks with individualized workshops led by experts in international education: course and campus.

For more information: ICCI

NAFSA 2019 Annual Conference- Global Leadership, Learning and Change

Dates: May 26-31, 2019
Location: Washington, DC.
The 2019 annual conference theme, “Global Leadership, Learning, and Change,” encourages reflection on the current state of the field and on how to work through the changes and challenges faced by higher education community and professionals. This conference aims to examine how to effectively deal with uncertainty and ambiguity in critical areas such as immigration, health, and safety, and consider the differences in perceptions of how countries welcome others. This conference will study current standards of successful leadership, at all levels of the field, and in the face of change.

For more information: NAFSA Annual Conference

You are welcome to contact Leslie A. Bozeman, Director of Curriculum Internationalization, to discuss these opportunities and/or the possibility of funding for them or similar opportunities. (lbozeman@iupui.edu).

Updated August 2018