Prospective IPMP Mentor:

I am excited to welcome you to the IUPUI International Peer Mentoring Program (IPMP).

The International Peer Mentoring Program (IPMP) started as an idea. An idea to help IUPUI students from all over the world with their transition to both university and American life. Since it's inception over a decade ago, IPMP has become so much more.

The IPMP is a family, a global family of mentors, coordinators, a manager/program director, and of course our mentees hailing from countries all over the world. Our mission is simple:

We aim to guide the successful social, cultural, and academic adjustment of IUPUI students from all over the world. IPMP equips undergraduate international students with the knowledge, support system, and tools to prosper at IUPUI and in the US.

As a mentor, you will accomplish this mission through pre-arrival assistance, one on one mentoring, social opportunities, and cultural programming for your mentees. For many of our mentors this is an enriching developmental experience that results in personal growth, expanded leadership skills, and long-lasting relationships.
